

120

A row of blue metal storage units or lockers. The unit on the left has a white number '120' on its door. The middle unit's door is open, revealing a brass handle and a lock mechanism. The unit on the right is closed. The units are situated outdoors on a dirt and gravel surface, with a brick building and trees in the background.

